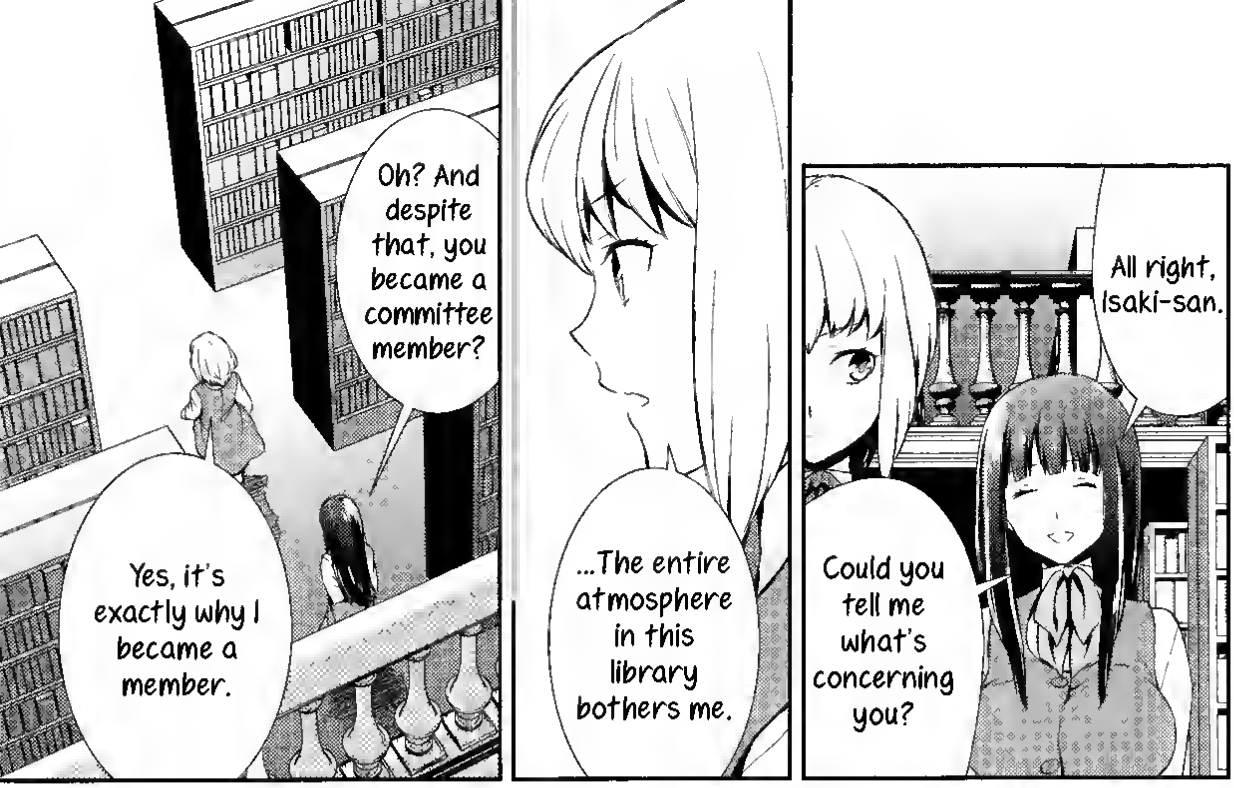
Anyway, daes anyane else have something they'd like ta discuss?
Yes, I do.
Okay, then... Isaki-san, was it? Please go ahead.
I'd like ta propose a renava-tian of the library!
A renava-tian...
af the library?
Yes, that's right.
This schaal's library has a dark and glaamy atmasphere.
I think it's keeping peaple away fram there.
秘蜜の絶対領域

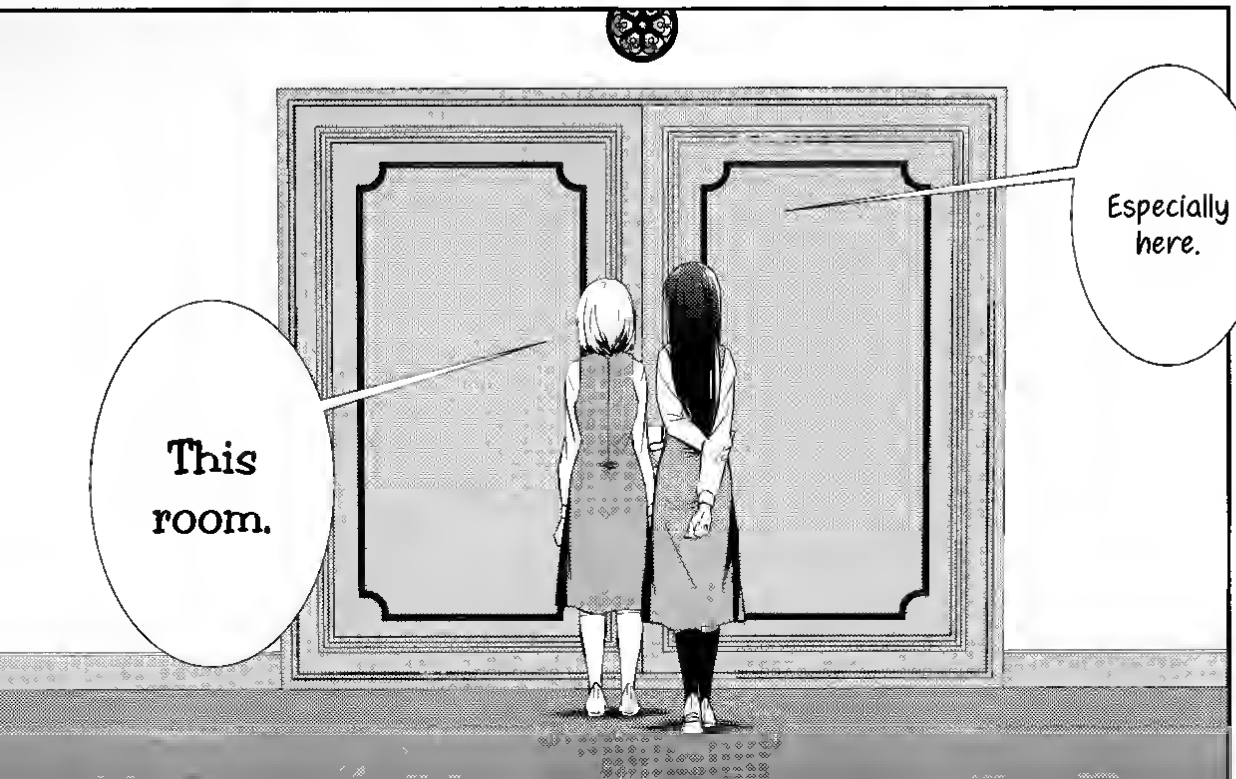
I see.
That's a very interesting suggestion.
She's a first-year, right?
What a ridiculaus idea...
whisper
I believe that more light should be able to enter the room.
The majority of those here prefer the library the way it is.
So I'll need to know more about why you have a problem with it.
...I don't mind.
and specifically point out what you don't like about it?
Well?
Would yau like ta accampany me to the library
Chairwoman Kamiya...

Then it's decided!
smile
Very well.
That concludes today's meeting.



All right, Isaki-san.
Could you tell me what's concerning you?
...The entire atmosphere in this library bothers me.
Oh? And despite that, you became a committee member?
Yes, it's exactly why I became a member.

This library does not feel like it's a place where one reods books.
That's what I want to change.



Especially here.
This room.

The air feels terribly stagnant in here.
This place holds books that can't be loaned out. It's to distinguish it from other libraries.
There are some very old books here, too. It's no surprise that it may feel stifling to you. However, this is a necessary place.
Do you need to have this space dedicated to that purpose alone?
I sense a hidden purpose behind this room, aside from keeping these books separated.
Isaki-san.
You're quite perceptive.

...
Kamiya... senpai?

You were able to physically feel the secret of this room.
That's a surprise.
You really don't know?
I thought you were just putting on an act to get me in here.
This room's...
secret?
An act?
What are you talking about?

slurp Please,
do as you wish.
Wha-
What are you doing!?
I'll shout for someone!

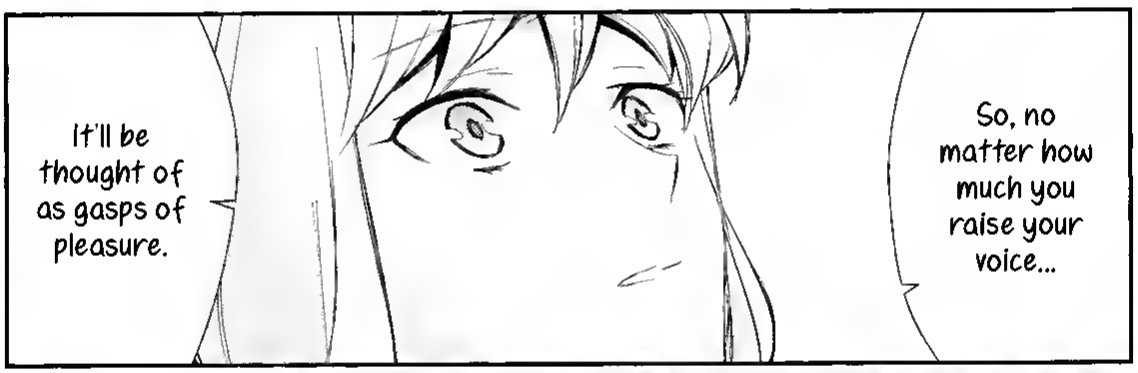
This room is a secret space for girls to express their love for each other.



So, no matter how much you raise your voice...
It'll be thought of as gasps of pleasure.

St-Stop it!

What ...?
Your skirt's going to get dirty.
Ah!
Oh, amazing.
You're soaking wet.
Hehe... I see.

Isaki-san...
You're so sensitive that you were able to perceive...
PRESS
the indecent nature of this room.
ドクン
But for some reason, you harbored anger towords it.
When it comes down to it, Isoki-son...
I believe that you have quite the interest in lewd things, hmm?

haa
Hehe... I haven't even touched them yet, but your nipples are hard.

Between touching yourself...

You'd never become this sensitive Hyah!
unless you're olreody stimulating yourself on a regular bosis.
shlick
shlick

Perhaps you pleasure yourself so often... that you feel guilty about it?
You must hate yourself for it. Maybe that's why the nature of this room bothered you?
I... I don't...
It's all right, Isaki-san. Pleasure is nothing to be ashamed af.
hah

Accept that side of you...

Ahh hhh!
Hehe... gasp
Did that feel good?
If yau wish far it, Isaki-san...
I can teach yau abaut many, many mare plea-surable things.

Moving on...
About the matter concerning the library that was raised the other day...
Right.
As a result of dicussing the renovation of the library with Isaki-san...
We have concluded that we must perform a more rigorous investigation.
So, Isaki-san...
Y-Yes !?
I hope you'll help me out with that again today.
...I will!
